Dear Admissions Official:

It is with great pride that I am writing to recommend Chloe Thomas for admission to your esteemed university. As a student at Guy M. Sconzo Early College High School, Chloe has distinguished herself both academically and through her extensive involvement in extracurricular activities and community service. Her exceptional performance and dedication make her an outstanding candidate for your institution.

I first had the opportunity to observe Chloe's remarkable qualities during her time at Sconzo Early College High School, where she was a student in my dual credit U.S. History course. Chloe quickly emerged as a leader in discussions, which often included topics from race in America, to identity and politics. During our discussions, Chloe was always opinionated yet respectful of the beliefs of others. Chloe's commitment to personal growth is evident in every setting.

Chloe Thomas possesses outstanding academic skills and an unwavering dedication to her education, consistently demonstrating a commitment that exceeds expectations. Her intellectual curiosity and disciplined work ethic, has allowed her to excel in all areas of her studies. Chloe approaches each subject with focus and enthusiasm, ensuring she not only meets but surpasses academic challenges. Her drive to improve and grasp complex concepts highlights the exceptionally bright future she has ahead. There is no doubt that Chloe's academic journey will lead to great success.

Beyond excelling academically, Chloe is deeply committed to community service, taking on roles that reflect her caring nature and desire to uplift others. She leads by example, drawing people in with her positive energy and determination. Her approachable leadership style shines in her club roles and extracurriculars, where she fosters a collaborative, supportive environment. Whether leading discussions or organizing activities, Chloe consistently motivates and brings out the best in her peers.

Chloe Thomas is a student of outstanding character and ability. It is with the utmost confidence that I offer my absolute highest recommendation for Chloe Thomas. Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information.

Best,
